DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on October 18, 2006 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claims 1-6 stand withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on February 17, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

4. Claims 22-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US Patent Application Publication 2004/0163748 A1.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in paragraph 2 of the Office action mailed May 16, 2006: with respect to claims 22-24 the spirally wound belt layer is wider than radially outer zigzag belt structure and with respect to claim 25 the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

5. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ueyoko et al. (6,116,311).

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in paragraph 3 of the Office action mailed May 16, 2006: the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

6. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese Patent Application 2002-211208 A.

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in paragraph 4 of the Office action mailed May 16, 2006: the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

7. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by de Loze de Plaisance et al. (6,125,900) cited by applicant taken with Oswald (4,838,966).

This reference is applied for the same reasons as set forth in paragraph 5 of the Office action mailed May 16, 2006: the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

8. Claims 22-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent Application Publication 2002/0005239 A1.

See entire document: 0-35 degree range for cord angle in assembly 32 is sufficiently small that one of ordinary skill in the art would have at once envisaged the 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 degree cord angle members of the range and therefore the reference discloses them with sufficient specificity (MPEP 2131.03). With respect to claim 25 the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

10. Claim 25 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over de Loze de Plaisance et al. (6,125,900) cited by applicant taken with Oswald (4,838,966), and in view of Ueyoko et al. (6,116,311).

These references are combined for the same reasons as set forth in paragraph 8 of the Office action mailed May 16, 2006: the strip overlap increases from zero in the center portion to greater than zero at the belt edge and the claim does not yet require the strips to be overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions each having a width of about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt as in claim 7.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 7, 8, and 19-21 are allowed.

The prior art of record fails to disclose or suggest the strips overlapped substantially throughout the shoulder portions with each shoulder portion being about 25% of the belt width of the widest belt in the claimed environment.
